

TEACHING CREDITS

Corinne Plomish (Buschmeyer) served on Calgary, Alberta's Mount Royal University Jazz Voice Faculty for 10 years as well as acting Coordinator for the Conservatory's Vocal Department, teaching Jazz/Pop Voice and Theory.

Corinne was also director of University of Calgary's Jazz Vocal Workshops Series in Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

After studying with The Royal Conservatory of Toronto (Grades 9 & 10 piano studies) her jazz harmony & arranging studies at Mohawk College in Hamilton, and her voice training with noted Hamilton/Toronto vocal coach Edward Johnson, she is able to bring a wealth of knowledge and tenacity to her teaching styles and live performances.

She integrates the genres of classical/jazz warmups with her pop/jazz background and presents a well rounded musical history and experience to her students, having performed with some of the best musicians in the world (please visit the CREDITS page for a list of artists she has worked with).

Corinne lends her talents to everyone she encounters as an instructor and musician, with expertise and know-how.

For those preparing to pursue post-secondary music studies, Corinne is equipped to enable each student with the requirements for a successful entry into schools nationwide.

Corinne has successfully prepared students for entry into the following schools:

The New School (New York), U.S.A
Berklee College of Music (Boston), U.S.A.
University of Southern California, U.S.A.
Humber College (Toronto), Canada
McGill University (Quebec), Canada
